Loudoun Election Officials Remind Voters of Proper Procedures for Absentee and Early Voting

Loudoun County election officials remind voters of the proper procedures for absentee voting and early voting for the November 3 general election.

“There are three things that appear to be causing some concern and confusion among voters right now: absentee ballot witness signatures, which envelopes are required for return and how to participate in early voting,” said Loudoun County General Registrar Judy Brown, who provides the following information:

Absentee Ballot Witness Signature Requirement Waived

Due to health and safety concerns brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic, the previous long-standing requirement in Virginia that voters casting absentee ballots must have a witness was recently waived. However, the witness requirement is still listed in the instructions, with the provision that people may opt out of the requirement if they cannot safely obtain a witness signature. “We are accepting absentee ballots without a witness signature as long as everything else on the ‘B’ envelope is filled out correctly,” said Brown. The deadline to apply for an absentee ballot by mail is October 23, 2020, at 5:00 p.m.

Follow Instruction and Use the Return Envelope

Brown reminds voters who have received an absentee ballot to make sure they follow the instructions for filling it out. When completed, they should seal the ballot in the ‘B’ envelope and complete the required information and then seal the ‘B’ envelope in the return envelope, which is the one with the purple stripe. “If people use the return envelope with the purple stripe down the side, that will speed up our ability to get their ballot into the system,” she said.

Early Voters Do Not Have to Apply in Advance

Anyone who would like to vote early in person may do so without an appointment or application. Early voting is available at the Office of Elections in Leesburg during normal business hours, with extended hours and additional early voting sites opening beginning October 17, 2020. The last day to vote early in person is Saturday, October 31, 2020.

October is National Disability Employment Awareness Month

NDEAM celebrates the accomplishments in the workplace of persons with disabilities and reaffirms the commitment to ensuring equal employment opportunities to all citizens. This year is the nation’s 75th observance of NDEAM, which is administered by the Department’s Office of Disability Employment Policy (ODEP). Each October, NDEAM celebrates America’s workers with disabilities and reminds employers of the importance of inclusive hiring practices.

In 1945, Congress declared the first week of October “National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week.” In 1962, the word “physically” was dropped to include individuals with all types of disabilities. Congress expanded the week to a month in 1988, and changed the commemoration to National Disability Employment Awareness Month.

The American Health Care Association/National Center for Assisted Living, a nonprofit that serves the needs of the assisted living community through national advocacy, education, networking and other initiatives, reports that there are about 28,000 assisted living facilities across the United States. Each one has its own flavor, strengths and weaknesses.

“Assisted living is part of the continuum of senior living options and is best suited for older adults who do not require complex medical care but would benefit from support with bathing, dressing, medication reminders, memory care and the provision of meals,” says Brian Doherty, president and CEO of the Massachusetts Assisted Living Association, a not-for-profit association dedicated to professionally operated assisted living residences in Massachusetts that provide housing and services for individuals with varied needs and income levels.

“Assisted living was founded on the values of independence, dignity and choice. Each assisted living community is different and offers its own unique amenities, services and activities,” he adds.

Prep Time: 5 minutes
Cook Time: 25 minutes
Total Time: 30 minutes
Yield: 6 servings
Method: Stove, Instant Pot, Slow Cooker

- 1.5 lbs (3 medium) boneless and skinless chicken breasts (you can also use rotisserie or dark meat)

- 3 cups chicken broth, low sodium
- 2 x 15 oz cans (3 cups) great Northern beans, drained and rinsed
- 2 cups corn
- 4 oz can diced green chiles (substitute bell pepper or jalapeno peppers)
- 1 tsp cumin, 1/2 tsp oregano, 1/2 tsp chili powder, 1/8 tsp cayenne pepper, 1 tsp salt
- Ground black pepper, to taste
- Small bunch of cilantro, finely chopped (more for garnish)
- 1/2 cup plain or Greek yogurt, fat 2%+
- 1 lime, juice of

Tortilla chips, avocado, more yogurt, limes, for serving

Instructions:

1. Preheat large heavy bottom pot or dutch oven on medium-high heat and swirl oil to coat.
2. Add garlic and onion, sauté for 3 minutes, stirring occasionally.
3. Add cumin, oregano, chili powder, cayenne pepper, salt and pepper and cook for 30 seconds, stirring constantly.
4. In a small bowl, add about 1 cup of beans and mash with a fork. It helps to thicken the chili.
5. Add broth, mashed and whole beans, corn, green chiles and chicken breasts. Cover, bring to a boil, reduce heat to low-medium and simmer for 20 minutes.
6. Turn off the heat. Remove chicken and shred with 2 forks or meat claws.
7. Return chicken to the pot along with lime juice, cilantro and yogurt. Stir and serve warm with your favorite toppings like tortilla chips, cheese, more cilantro and lime.

Instant Pot Healthy White Chicken Chili

1. In a small bowl, add about 1 cup of beans and mash with a fork. It helps to thicken the chili.
2. To 6 or 8 quart Instant Pot, add ingredients in the following order: garlic, onion, corn, whole and mashed beans, chicken breasts, green chiles, cumin, oregano, chili powder, cayenne pepper, salt, pepper and broth. Do not stir.
3. Close the lid, set pressure vent to Sealing and Pressure Cook on High or Manual for 20 minutes.
4. Release pressure using Quick Release method by turning pressure valve to Venting position immediately after cooking.
5. Open the lid, remove chicken and shred with 2 forks or meat claws.
6. Return chicken to the Instant Pot along with lime juice, cilantro and yogurt. Stir and serve warm with your favorite toppings like tortilla chips, cheese, more cilantro and lime.

Store: Refrigerate in an airtight container for up to 5 days.
Freeze: Fully cook, cool completely and freeze in an airtight container for up to 3 months. Thaw on a stovetop covered on low. Notes: Don’t have yogurt? Use sour cream/cream cheese or heavy cream instead. Or omit yogurt altogether!

EVENT/ATTRACTION INFORMATION
Name that bird!

We have a new friend that likes to hang out in the back of the senior center parking lot near the woods. Donna at Loudoun County Animal Control tells us these birds are very accurate hunters and judging from the size of her belly, the woods provide a good food source (rodents), which means she may hang out for a while. We asked if the bird could be pregnant, but Donna told us it’s too late in the season for little ones. Got enough clues? Can you name that bird?

Email your guess to paul.torrible@loudoun.gov. The first correct answer will be the winner. We will announce the winner in two weeks.

The 80’s

Really can’t say who killed J.R. I had to google J.R. to find out who was this infamous person.

The year reference was 1980, and I was living in Zaragoza, Spain; had no television or telephone. Interestingly enough, I was living in what was considered a luxury 5th floor apartment. Allow me to define luxury by Spanish standards: a kitchen with a stove, small refrigerator, washer/dryer (stacked) and a couple of cabinets above the stove. The typical kitchen would be empty. Note, however, the kitchen nor any other room had ceiling light fixtures, just the wires dangling nonchalantly like spaghetti junction. And, if you did not differentiate the negative wire from the positive one, guess what—no lights.

The master bedroom had double doors to an open balcony, how ingenious because this was the way my furniture was winched into the apartment. At that time, I had an ugly couch and had hoped the winch rope would break and I’d be rid of that couch. Didn’t happen. The elevator was too small for furniture and maximin number of adults allowed on the elevator were four.

Also visual from the balcony, the Autopista (major highway), the railway station and the Aljaferia Palace. Within two blocks was the Cathedral Basilica of Our Lady of Pillar.

Other than that, I worked five days/week, shopped every weekend in the open market, (always purchased green olives and a bunch of flowers), traveled as much as possible including a flight on a refueling aircraft as it refueled fighter jets over the Mediterranean Sea. Most important about the tour in Spain, I successfully completed my thesis.

At the end of my tour in Zaragoza, drove off in the early morning to Biarritz, France, boarded a car train to Saarbrucken, Germany en route to Bitburg, Germany. And guess what, no television or phone there either. And no J.R.!
