Manager’s Note

Finding Gratitude in Challenging Times

My favorite meditation group was led by a fascinating woman from India. She had a wonderful way of guiding meditation with her gentle voice and captivating narration. During one of our group discussions, she asked each of us to describe our day with one word. It was a rainy day, so most of us used words like, “soggy” and “traffic” to describe the challenges of the day. When everyone had shared, she said her word for the day was “joy.” She told a story of her childhood in India where they experienced long periods of draught and when it finally rained, she and her siblings would run outside and dance in the street to celebrate the rain.

Over the last several months, during this pandemic and a tumultuous election year, I’ve thought about that story often. It can feel sad and even hopeless when we are missing milestone celebrations with family and friends and facing limitations on our regular activities. One thing I’ve found very helpful is the practice of finding three things I’m grateful for every day. This practice of daily gratitude helps me to re-focus my energy to appreciate the little things we tend to miss when we feel inundated with challenges. Today, I am grateful for a steaming hot cup of dandelion tea, the bright yellow mums on my front porch, and yes – the rain watering them.

What are you grateful for? I invite you to share one thing you are grateful for and we will feature these in the Thanksgiving edition of the E-Newsletter. Please limit your submission to three words and email to me no later than Friday, November 13, brenda.davis@loudoun.gov.

Wednesday November 11th is Veterans Day

On November 11, 1919, U.S. president Woodrow Wilson issued a message to his countrymen on the first Armistice Day, in which he expressed what he felt the day meant to Americans:

A year ago today our enemies laid down their arms in accordance with an armistice which rendered them impotent to renew hostilities, and gave to the world an assured opportunity to reconstruct its shattered order and to work out in peace a new and juster set of international relations. The soldiers and people of the European Allies had fought and endured for more than four years to uphold the barrier of civilization against the aggressions of armed force. We ourselves had been in the conflict something more than a year and a half.

With splendid forgetfulness of mere personal concerns, we remodeled our industries, concentrated our financial resources, increased our agricultural output, and assembled a great army, so that at the last our power was a decisive factor in the victory. We were able to bring the vast resources, material and moral, of a great and free people to the assistance of our associates in Europe who had suffered and sacrificed without limit in the cause for which we fought.

Out of this victory there arose new possibilities of political freedom and economic concert. The war showed us the strength of great nations acting together for high purposes, and the victory of arms foretells the enduring conquests which can be made in peace when nations act justly and in furtherance of the common interests of men.

To us in America the reflections of Armistice Day will be filled with solemn pride in the heroism of those who died in the country's service, and with gratitude for the victory, both because of the thing from which it has freed us and because of the opportunity it has given America to show her sympathy with peace and justice in the councils of nations.
The testing events are open to all. There are no age or residency requirements. No prescriptions or appointments are necessary. A person does not have to exhibit symptoms of COVID-19 in order to be tested. A PCR test (nasal swab) will be administered, which tests for the novel coronavirus. Results will be available within a week. No antibody testing will be offered.

Veteran Services in Loudoun County is designed to coordinate a one-stop information, outreach, and referral hub for veterans, and to establish a collaborative network of partners who serve veterans in the county. Veterans give advice to friends and family

Veterans served their nation selflessly, but service sometimes weighs heavily on their mental health, and stigma can be a barrier to seeking help. This video features a diverse group of veterans sharing their personal messages about how friends and family can show their support.

RECIPE CORNER

Army SOS Creamed Ground Beef

Ingredients

- 1 pound ground beef
- ¼ cup all-purpose flour
- 1 cube beef bouillon
- ¾ teaspoon salt
- 1 pinch ground black pepper
- 2 ¼ cups milk
- ¼ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Directions

Step 1: Brown beef in a large skillet over medium high heat. Stir in flour, bouillon, salt and pepper. Saute all together for about 5 minutes or until flour is absorbed. Gradually stir in milk and Worcestershire sauce. Bring all to a simmer, stirring constantly. Cook until thickened, about 5 to 10 minutes. Serve hot!

Navy Potatoes

Ingredients

- 6 large potatoes, peeled and quartered lengthwise
- 1 cup butter, divided, or more as needed
- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- salt and ground black pepper to taste

Directions

- Step 1: Place the potato wedges in a bowl of water, and refrigerate for at least 1 hour.

- Step 2: Preheat oven to 450 degrees F (230 degrees C). Spray a baking sheet with cooking spray. Melt 1/2 cup of butter in a small saucepan over low heat; pour it into a shallow dish. Mix flour, salt, and pepper in a second shallow dish. Roll potato wedges in the seasoned flour, then dip into the butter. Arrange potato wedges on the baking sheet. Melt and add more butter for dipping as you go along (the flour makes it thick).

- Step 3: Bake the wedges in the preheated oven until tender and golden brown, 35 to 40 minutes.

Prepping for Thanksgiving dinner can be daunting — perhaps especially so in a year like no other. One way to get ahead of that stress is to start your meal-planning early so you can make the most of the holiday. With that in mind, we're serving up some of our favorite holiday eCookbooks to help pull your menu together: from foolproof sides and pies, to vegan mains and everything in between. It's also the time of year that cooking magazines put out their holiday issues. Library card-holders can download the digital editions for free — and keep them forever!
