Virtual Town Hall Meeting 6/22: Data Centers, Retail, and More

I will be hosting my next virtual Dulles Direct Town Hall Meeting via Facebook Live on Tuesday, June 22 at 7:00 p.m.

I frequently receive questions (and feedback) about the growing number of data centers in Loudoun County. Joining me at this meeting will be the best possible expert on that topic: Buddy Rizer, Executive Director of Loudoun Economic Development (and a nationally recognized expert on the data center industry). I had planned to do a Town Hall meeting with Buddy back in September before my injury, so I'm very glad to finally make it happen.

Buddy and I will also discuss retail trends in this post-COVID-19 world, including the status of Dulles-area projects. Of course, I'll offer general updates and take all of your questions on these topics and others.

This will be the first virtual town hall meeting we've had in 2021, and our third overall since the pandemic began. Just like in the previous meetings, my staff will be monitoring the comments section
