County's First Recreation Center Turns Ten

Ashburn, VA – The Loudoun County Department of Parks, Recreation and Community Services is celebrating the 10th anniversary of Claude Moore Recreation Center, and the public is invited! To thank the community for its support, the center will host a special open house on Friday, March 31, from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m. Admission is free and all ages are welcome.

The event features fitness, wellness and personal training workshops, Zumba, strength training for seniors, kids' activities, open-climb on the rock wall, swim evaluations, a staff fitness challenge, family swim night, concessions and more. Visitors will want to check out the CMRC passport table for details on how to win a free annual membership!

Claude Moore Recreation Center is the first recreation center built and operated by the County of Loudoun. Features of the 84,000 square-foot facility include a competition and lap pool, leisure pool with slide and heated spa, 10,000-square-foot gymnasium, state-of-art fitness equipment, elevated indoor track, rock wall, teen room, dance studio and meeting rooms. The center opened on March 31, 2007.

Claude Moore Recreation Center is located at 46105 Loudoun Park Lane in Claude Moore Park in Sterling. Visitors should use the Loudoun Park Lane entrance. For more information, call 571-258-3600.
