The Route 15 corridor is designated as a National Scenic Byway and is part of the Journey Through Hallowed Ground National Heritage Area.

The Route 15 corridor is also a part of the Mosby Heritage Area, which encompasses most of Northern Virginia.

Legend

- Virginia Scenic Byway
- Ball's Bluff Battlefield Historic District
- Lucketts Historic District
- Catoctin Creek Scenic River
- Catoctin Rural Historic District
- Individual Historic District Properties
- Archaeological Resources
- USFWS National Wetlands Inventory
- 100 Year FEMA Floodplain
- Streams
- Agricultural and Forestal Districts
- Limestone Overlay District
- Water
- Park

Petroleum releases are releases from storage tanks that have the potential to contaminate soil, groundwater, surface water, or indoor air.

Registered tank facilities are storage tanks for hazardous materials that are monitored by the EPA.

Petroleum releases are releases from storage tanks that have the potential to contaminate soil, groundwater, surface water, or indoor air.

Registered tank facilities are storage tanks for hazardous materials that are monitored by the EPA.