“SOUTH PACIFIC”- RIVERSIDE DINNER THEATRE, FREDERICKSBURG

Set against the dramatic background of an idyllic South Pacific island during WWII, Rodgers and Hammerstein’s South Pacific intertwines the themes of romance, duty, and prejudice to create a story that is all at once hilarious, heartbreaking, and thought-provoking. Based on the anecdotes of a real-life U.S. Navy commander stationed on an island, the musical follows two intercultural love stories: Nellie, a spunky nurse from Arkansas, falls in love with Emile, a French plantation owner on the island who has two children from his late Polynesian wife; at the same time, U.S. Lieutenant Cable falls for a beautiful island native named Liat. Both Americans find themselves struggling to reconcile their own cultural prejudices with their amorous feelings, all the while under the dark cloud of a war that is coming ever closer to their island paradise

Enjoy a plated lunch in this lovely theatre followed by the show. Price includes lunch, show, and transportation. Optional gratuity not included. Minimum walking. Limited to 27.

“CABARET” OPTION I, OLNEY THEATRE, OLNEY, MD

Willkommen! And bienvenue! to Kander and Ebb’s Tony-winning Cabaret, where the world burns brightly with desire and debauchery. In 1929 Berlin, Cliff arrives to work on his novel but finds himself swept up in the life of the cabaret with its bawdy Emcee, and swept away by the performer and provocateur Sally Bowles. Bunked together at Fräulein Schneider’s boarding house, their impossible affair bumps up against the threatened love between their landlord and a Jewish fruit seller. From the opening notes of “Willkommen” through the title song and such classics as “Don’t Tell Mama” and “Money,” Cabaret delivers a raw theatrical experience on a knife’s edge between unbridled sexuality and looming disaster. “ESCAPED ALONE” SIGNATURE THEATRE, SHIRLINGTON, VA

Hailed as one of the most important playwrights of our time, Caryl Churchill's (Cloud 9, Top Girls) electrifying Signature debut is a caustically funny and surreal afternoon of tea and calamity. In a serene British garden three old friends are joined by a neighbor to engage in amiable chitchat—with a side of apocalyptic horror. The women's talk of grandchildren and T.V shows breezily intersperses with tales of terror in a quietly teetering world where all is not what it seems. Acclaimed DC actress Holly Twyford takes the helm as director for the Washington premiere of this dazzling and inventive masterpiece. .Have lunch on own prior to show in area restaurant or Theatre Café. FIBER, FOAM AND FUN, GERMAN ADVENTURES IN FREDERICK MD

Celebrate all things German on this unique trip to Frederick. Start by touring the Schifferstadt Architectural Museum. The house is one of the oldest in Frederick County and one of the best examples in America of how German settlers adapted their traditions to the American frontier. Its distinctively German features led the U.S. Department of the Interior to name it a National Historic Landmark. At the Evangelical Reformed United Church of Christ you will enjoy a tour of the sanctuary and historic Trinity Chapel. The stone tower is all that remains of the original church built in 1763. Rebuilt in 1881 as Trinity Chapel, its graceful 1807 colonial steeple is the oldest of the “clustered spires of Frederick.” The grave of the pastor who baptized Francis Scott Key is in the old tower, and the steeple houses the historic town clock. Then enjoy a delicious catered German meal, (German Barley Soup, Bratwursts with Sauerkraut, German Potato Salad, Cucumber Salad, Rolls with Butter, and Dessert. After lunch visit Whispering Meadows Alpaca Farm, The German family is pleased to host you as you interact with these gentle and comical animals. You will also have time to purchase alpaca fiber products. In keeping with German tradition you'll finish the day with a toast at Red Shedman. Red Shedman Farm Brewery & Hop Yard is located among the rolling hills of Mt. Airy, on over 200 acres of farmland. Enjoy a tasting and have the opportunity to purchase cans or growlers of your favorite brew. Over twelve different varieties on premise. Price includes motorcoach transportation, tours, lunch and beer tasting. Optional guide and driver gratuity not included. Extensive walking. Limited to 52

“THE ROYALE”, OLNEY THEATRE, OLNEY, MD

In 1905, Jay “The Sport” Jackson dreams of becoming the first African American boxer to fight for the heavyweight championship. Despite racking up a string of vicious knockouts, racial segregation and his white manager’s own reservations stand in the way. Inspired by the true story of Jack Johnson, The Royale breaks new ground by taking us inside the fighter’s mind where the disciplined brutality of boxing reveals itself in theatrically-unforgettable bouts. At stake is more than wins or losses, but equality and survival. .Lunch on own prior to show in local restaurant. Price includes motor coach transportation and show. NATIONAL SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA, COFFEE CONCERT", KENNEDY CENTER

A lot of conductors are called 'rock stars,' but with Krzysztof Urbanski, the label fits."—The Washington Post
In his much-anticipated return to the NSO, electrifying young conductor Krzysztof Urbanski unleashes the full force of Tchaikovsky's Fourth Symphony. Witness the composer's magnificent journey from darkness to light: an evolution of emotion ranging from wistful poetry to commanding optimism and ultimately, renewed love of life. Chopin's Piano Concerto No. 2 is performed by young French pianist Lise de la Salle, whose playing inspired a Washington Post critic to write, "For much of the concert, the audience had to remember to breathe... the exhilaration didn't let up for a second until her hands came off the keyboard. Preceding each Coffee Concert a la carte breakfast items will be available for purchase in the KC Café. Concert begins at 11:30AM. Price includes transportation and concert. Minimum walking. "RIGHT TO BE FORGOTTEN" ARENA STAGE, WASHINGTON, DC

The Internet never forgets. A young man's mistake at 17 haunts him online a decade later. Desperate for a normal life, he goes to extraordinary lengths to erase his indiscretion. But freedom of information is big business, and the tech companies aren't going down without a fight. Secrets, lies and political backstabbing abound in this riveting new drama about one man's fierce battle to reclaim his right to privacy. Playwright Sharyn Rothstein (By the Water, USA Network's Suits), winner of the prestigious 2015 Primus Prize and whose work has been called "touching & affecting" (New York Times), has written a striking allegory about privacy, social media and human forgiveness in the age of the internet. “1984”- GEORGE MASON CENTER, FAIRFAX, VA

Aquila Theatre brings one of the great novels of the 20th Century to the stage—George Orwell’s dystopian 1984—in a chilling and timely production. The cautionary tale is set in the super-state Oceania, a totalitarian regime ruled by the “Party” and its leader, “Big Brother,” who employ the “Thought Police” to quell individualism and independent thinking. Obedient rank-and-file Party member Winston Smith secretly hates the repressive regime and dreams of a rebellion against Big Brother. He begins a forbidden relationship with Julia, a fellow employee, and his life sets off in a dangerous direction. Published in 1949, 1984 examines the issues of truth, nationalism, censorship, surveillance, privacy, and individualism. Aquila Theatre’s production of 1984 provides a space to contemplate the value of individual thought. “Aquila’s productions are beautifully spoken, dramatically revealing, and crystalline in effect” (The New Yorker). Show begins 8 PM. Includes ticket and transportation. Minimum walking. Limited to 27.
